Dept./Agy.: Higher Education	Analyst: Charley Rome
Subject: Educational Benefits for Veterans

COLLEGES/UNIVERSITIES EN NO IMPACT GF EX See Note Page 1 of 1
Provides certain educational benefits for veterans who are students at La. public colleges and universities

Relative to veterans who are students at La. public colleges and universities, the bill provides for the award of educational credits for courses that are part of the student's military service and that meet certain academic standards. Requires each public postsecondary education management board to adopt certain policies (by not later than Jan. 1, 2012) as well as rules, regulations, and procedures to implement proposed law beginning with the 2012-2013 academic year and continuing thereafter. Effective upon governor's signature.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. The provisions of the proposed legislation requiring higher education boards and institutions to accept military education courses will not significantly impact expenditures because these credits are already accepted in most cases according to the Board of Regents.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure. The provisions of the proposed legislation requiring higher education boards and institutions to accept military education courses will not significantly impact revenues because these credits are already accepted in most cases according to the Board of Regents.
