HB No. 8

Abstract: Prohibits the release of information contained in concealed handgun permit applications and the release of information regarding the identity of any person who applied for or received such a permit.

Present law provides for the issuance of concealed handgun permits.

Present law further provides that any information contained in an application for a concealed handgun permit or any information provided in connection with the application submitted to DPS&C is confidential, shall not be subject to any public records request, and shall not be considered a public record.

Present law further provides that DPS&C shall not release any list of persons who applied for or received a permit for a concealed handgun.

Proposed law prohibits the release of this information contained in present law and provides penalties for the release of the information as follows:

- (1) An employee of DPS&C or any law enforcement officer who releases information contained in an application for a concealed handgun permit shall be fined not more than $500, imprisoned for not more than six months, or both. Provides an exception if a court orders the release.
- (2) Any other person who publishes, disseminates, or makes public the confidential information shall be fined not more than $5,000, imprisoned for not more than two years, with or without hard labor, or both.
