DIGEST

Present constitution relative to retirement of judges provides that within two years after the effective date of the constitution (midnight of Dec. 31, 1974), the legislature shall provide for a retirement system for judges which shall apply to a judge taking office after the effective date of the law enacting the system and in which a judge in office at that time may elect to become a member, with credit for all prior years of judicial service and without contribution therefor. The retirement benefits and judicial service rights of a judge in office or retired on the effective date of the constitution shall not be diminished, nor shall the benefits to which a surviving spouse is entitled be reduced.

Proposed constitutional amendment retains present language.

Present constitution further provides that, except as otherwise provided in the present constitution, a judge shall not remain in office beyond his 70th birthday. A judge who attains the age of 70 while serving a term of office shall be allowed to complete that term of office.

Proposed constitutional amendment deletes this language.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held on Nov. 4, 2014.

(Amends Const. Art. V., Sec. 23).
