EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

Implementation of the proposed legislation could cost the state an additional $4.3 M to ensure adequate funding for a statewide election if any proposed constitutional amendments are included on the ballot of the election scheduled to be held October 19, 2013. October 19, 2013 is already a scheduled election date for municipal primary elections. The agency's FY 14 budget includes $1.7 M for the October 19th municipal elections. If no proposed constitutional amendments are included on the ballot of the October 19th election, the election would not be considered a statewide election date and no additional funding would be required. The total cost for a statewide election is approximately $6 M.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
