

Regular Session, 2013

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 35

BY REPRESENTATIVE SMITH

A RESOLUTION

To recognize Tuesday, April 16, 2013, as Clergy Day at the Louisiana State Capitol.

WHEREAS, People Improving Communities through Organizing (PICO) is a nonprofit, interfaith, multiethnic, cross-cultural, and interracial group of ordinary people learning to become leaders in our community by putting their faith into action; and

WHEREAS, PICO provides training in community organizing in order to empower leaders to become activists for positive change; and

WHEREAS, on Tuesday, April 16, 2013, PICO Louisiana and One Voice, along with the Louisiana Legislative Black Caucus, are hosting Clergy Day at the Capitol; and

WHEREAS, on this day, clergy from across Louisiana will convene in the Louisiana State Capitol in unity; and

WHEREAS, Clergy Day at the Capitol offers the faith community an opportunity to mobilize in a proactive way to speak against any income tax or sales tax plans that would hurt poor and working families but also in support of lifelines to healing, health care, transportation, and housing issues.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby recognize Tuesday, April 16, 2013, as Clergy Day at the Louisiana State Capitol.
