12 (dd) If an agenda of a meeting of a governing authority of a parish or 13 municipality contains more than fifty items, the governing authority may take action 14 on items listed on a consent agenda without reading the description of each item 15 aloud. However, before any action is taken on items listed on a consent agenda, the 16 governing authority shall allow a public comment period. Any item listed on a 17 consent agenda may be removed from the consent agenda by an individual member 18 of the governing authority if a person objects to the presence of the item on the 19 consent agenda and provides reasons for individual discussion at the meeting. The 20 name of the person who objects to a consent agenda item and the reasons for the 21 objection shall be included in the minutes of the meeting."
