

Requests La. State Law Institute to study the feasibility of requiring clerks of court to accept electronic signatures on documents for filing. Requires report to the legislature no later than February 1, 2015.