

Commends the Louisiana Coalition for Violence Prevention upon its efforts as coalition of behavioral health community members who are committed to the early detection of those at risk for violence in order to prevent such violence and the terrible human tragedies that accompany such violence.