

Requests the Department of Children and Family Services to collaborate with stakeholders to study and develop a comprehensive statewide plan for the delivery of domestic violence services and to report its recommendations to the Senate Committee on Health and Welfare on or before January 15, 2014.