

New law retains prior law regarding provisional appointments, but prohibits a classified employee of the New Orleans Police Department who has been temporarily appointed to a provisional appointment from being eligible for any benefits which are to accrue based upon the promotion, or increase in salary.

New law provides that notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no additional benefits shall accrue or be earned from compensation above the normal rate of pay for a classified employee of the New Orleans Police Department who has been appointed to a temporary executive level assignment within the department and for which such employee receives special assignment pay.

New law provides for definitions.

Effective August 1, 2013.

(Amends R.S. 33:2419(B)(1); adds R.S. 33:2434)