

Prior law required title insurance producers to complete six hours of approved instruction prior to license renewal.

New law requires, with renewals effective in 2015, 12 hours of approved instruction or verifiable approved self-study prior to license renewal with at least two hours dedicated to matters related to state and federal consumer finance protection laws.

Effective August 1, 2013.

(Amends R.S. 22:1573(L))