

Creates a task force to study issues relative to tuition costs at public postsecondary education institutions and to submit a report of its findings and recommendations, including any recommendations for legislation, to the House Committee on Education prior to the 2014 R.S. Provides that the commissioner of higher education shall convene the task force and designate staff to assist the task force in the study. Provides for issues to be included in the study and provides for task force membership. Provides that task force members shall serve without compensation.