

Memorializes the U.S. Congress to take such actions as are necessary to codify into law a U.S. Department of Defense standard for religious freedom that would be applied to all uniformed services.