

Directs the Louisiana State Law Institute to study and review the Louisiana Trust Code and to make recommendations as to whether it should be amended to provide for asset protection trusts, silent trusts, directed trusts, and any other types of trusts that have been adopted in other states that could be helpful to Louisiana citizens, and to report its findings and recommendations to the Louisiana Legislature on or before Jan. 1, 2015.