Provides relative to the official journal of the state for purposes of notice of retirement bills

Present constitution provides that no proposal to change existing laws or constitutional provisions regarding any public retirement system shall be introduced unless notice of intention to introduce the proposal has been published in the official state journal on 2 separate days, at least 30 days before introduction of the bill.

Present law provides that the Official Journal of the State shall be a daily newspaper with certain qualifications and requires all public notices and advertising done by the legislature to be published in the Official Journal of the State.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that for purposes of the present constitution relative to notice of introduction of retirement bills, "Official Journal of the State" means the Official Journal of the State as provided for in present law, the Internet website or portal of the Official Journal of the State, or the official Internet website or portal of the legislature.
