EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Pursuant to R.S. 39:1489, OCR currently produces an annual report every January of all professional, personal, consulting, social services and other contracts overseen by OCR. The information presented in the current report is of all contracts and does not specify how each contract was procured (competitive bidding or non-competitive bidding). In order to meet the requirements of the proposed bill, OCR would be required to report more detailed information of each contract than what is currently being presented.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
