

---

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Christopher D. Adams.

---

DIGEST

Heitmeier

SCR No. 47

Urges the Department of Health and Hospitals to study the feasibility, desirability, and practicality of alternative transportation sites (i.e. urgent care clinics) for patients who access emergency medical services via the 911 system and the use of ambulance service providers and suppliers to assist with training and management of this population.