7 in the heart of Acadiana in Louisiana with an actual document signing will occur at the 8 Mercredi Show at Pelican Park in Carencro; and

9 WHEREAS, the citizens of Dieppe came together with the citizens of Carencro to 10 share the benefits of their way of life and the Acadian culture and have organized repeated 11 visits and exchanges to foster a better appreciation of our mutual ways of life; and

12 WHEREAS, the two municipalities have many things in common, including that 13 each has had horse racing tracks but neither have a track today; each has large, open spaces; 14 each is near a major university; each is a neighbor of a larger city, as one street separates the 15 city of Carencro from the larger city of Lafayette, and one street separates Dieppe from the 16 larger city of Moncton; and

17 WHEREAS, Carencro is twinned with Dieppe while Lafayette is twinned with 18 Moncton; and

1 WHEREAS, both communities share the attitude of "Laissez les bons temps rouler!" 2 and share common family names, although they may be spelled a little differently, such as 3 Cormier, LeBlanc, Gaudet, Robichaux/Robichaud, Leger/Lege, and Melancon/Melanson; 4 and

5 WHEREAS, several visitors have come from Canada to Louisiana to take part in the 6 celebration namely Maire Yvon and Betty Lapierre, Councilor Paul & Jacqueline Belliveau,
