require otherwise, and revenues derived from any tax on the transportation of minerals, such deposit to be made after the following allocations of said mineral revenues have been made:

- (1) To the Bond Security and Redemption Fund as provided by Article VII, Section 9 (B) of present constitution.
- (2) To the political subdivisions of the state as provided in Article VII, Sections 4 (D) and (E) of present constitution.
- (3) As provided by the requirements of Article VII, Section 10-A and 10.1 of present constitution.

Present constitution authorizes an increase in the base amount for deposits into the Budget Stabilization Fund every 10 years beginning in 2000 by a law enacted by two-thirds of the elected members of each house of the legislature. Present law provides that the base amount is $850 million.

Present constitution provides that monies in the Budget Stabilization Fund are available exclusively for use in the case of an existing or projected budget deficit.

Present constitution establishes the Transportation Trust Fund (TTF) as a special treasury fund into which the proceeds of the state tax on gasoline and other fuels is deposited. Monies in the TTF are used for support of the state's highway priority program administered by the Dept. of Transportation and Development.

Proposed constitutional amendment requires the first $50 million of excess mineral revenues above the base amount established in present constitution for the Budget Stabilization Fund to be deposited into the TTF instead of the Budget Stabilization Fund. The deposit would be made each year beginning July 1, 2017, and end in the fiscal year that ends June 30, 2027.

Proposed constitutional amendment provides that monies deposited into the TTF pursuant to proposed constitutional amendment shall be used in the same manner as all other monies in the TTF, except if a state infrastructure bank is established by law, then such monies shall be used to capitalize the bank.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held November 4, 2014.

(Amends Const Art. VII, §27(A); Adds Const. Art. VII, §10.3(A)(2)(a)(iv))
