Provides relative to the Uniform Interstate Deposition and Discovery Act

Provides for the continuous revision of the Code of Civil Procedure including extending the time period in which the state must respond to a request for production of documents from 15 to 30 days, makes the deadline for answering incidental demands the same as the deadline for principal demands, ensures that the person taking a deposition for a case does not have an interest in the outcome of the case, and lastly a party does not have to identify a testimony expert without an order for an expert request or a discovery request from opposing counsel.
