Provides an exception to the Department of Revenue's duty to keep certain tax records confidential. (8/1/14)

Current law specifically lists circumstances under which the Department of Revenue may share taxpayer information and the penalties involved for violation of the confidentiality agreement.

Proposed law retains current law and allows the Department of Revenue, Attorney General and the Office of Alcohol and Tobacco Control to share confidential taxpayer information with professional services firms in order to carry out administrative functions related to the Master Settlement Agreement. The bill also authorizes the Department of Revenue to share confidential taxpayer information with the Office of Alcohol and Tobacco Control to carry out its administrative function in the regulation of alcohol and tobacco industries.
