

ACT No. 72

Regular Session, 2014

HOUSE BILL NO. 513

BY REPRESENTATIVE HENRY AND SENATORS CLAITOR, DORSEY-COLOMB, ERDEY, MILLS, AND NEVERS

1 AN ACT

2 To enact Part LXXV of Chapter 5 of Title 40 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to
3 be comprised of R.S. 40:1300.381 through 1300.382, relative to chromosome
4 deletion disorders; to provide for definitions; to provide for dissemination of
5 information regarding velocardiofacial syndrome and 22q11.2 deletion syndrome;
6 to provide for rulemaking authority; to authorize the use of available resources for
7 cost containment; and to provide for related matters.

8 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

9 Section 1. Part LXXV of Chapter 5 of Title 40 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 10 1950, comprised of R.S. 40:1300.381 through 1300.382, is hereby enacted to read as 11 follows:

12 PART LXXV. CHROMOSOME DELETION DISORDERS

13 §1300.381. Definitions

14 In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions
15 are applicable:

16 (1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Hospitals.

17 (2) "Early intervention services" means services that are designed to meet
18 the developmental needs of an infant or toddler with a disability, in any one or more
19 of the following areas:

20 (a) Physical development.

21 (b) Cognitive development.

22 (c) Communication development.

23 (d) Social or emotional development.

1 (e) Adaptive development.

2 (3) "Early intervention services provider" means any provider of early
3 intervention services to infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families.

4 "Early intervention services provider" includes but is not limited to the following:

5 (a) Special educators.

6 (b) Speech-language pathologists and audiologists.

7 (c) Occupational therapists.

8 (d) Physical therapists.

9 (e) Psychologists.

10 (f) Social workers.

11 (g) Nurses.

12 (h) Registered dietitians.

13 (i) Family therapists.

14 (j) Vision specialists, including ophthalmologists and optometrists.

15 (k) Orientation and mobility specialists.

16 (l) Pediatricians and other physicians.

17 §1300.382. Velocardiofacial syndrome and 22q11.2 deletion syndrome;
18 dissemination of information; rulemaking authority; costs

19 A. The department shall make available materials regarding velocardiofacial
20 syndrome and 22q11.2 deletion syndrome to each early intervention services
21 provider in this state.

22 B. Each early intervention services provider may offer the materials to
23 parents of a child who is known by the provider to have at least two of the following
24 conditions:

25 (1) Hypotonicity.

26 (2) Communication delay.

27 (3) Articulation disorder.

28 (4) Resonance disorder.

29 (5) Nasal regurgitation during feeding as an infant with no history of a cleft
30 palate.

1 (6) Recurrent ear infections as well as diagnosis of cardiac anomaly, feeding
2 disorder, cleft palate, or submucosal cleft palate.

3 (7) Fine motor or gross motor skills delay.

4 C.(1) The department shall develop the materials required pursuant to this
5 Section using medically accurate, peer-reviewed literature.

6 (2) The materials made available by the department pursuant to this Section
7 shall include, at a minimum, all of the following:

8 (a) An explanation of velocardiofacial syndrome and 22q11.2 deletion
9 syndrome symptoms, diagnosis, and treatment options.

10 (b) Information on relevant state agency and nonprofit resources, parent
11 support groups, and available Medicaid waiver programs.

12 (c) A recommendation for follow-up with a healthcare provider for 13 evaluation of the underlying etiology and an explanation that the existence of any of 14 the conditions listed in Subsection B of this Section will not necessarily result in a
15 diagnosis of velocardiofacial syndrome or 22q11.2 deletion syndrome.

16 D. The department may adopt, in accordance with the Administrative 17 Procedure Act, any rules and regulations necessary to implement this Section.

18 E. In developing the materials required by this Section, the department may 19 utilize any available resources for the purposes of minimizing costs to the 20 department.
