DIGEST OF THE SENATE BILL AS RETURNED TO THE SENATE

Johns

SB No. 333

Present law provides for the crimes of incest, aggravated incest, crime against nature, and aggravated crime against nature.

Proposed law repeals the crime of incest and places the elements and penalties for the crime into the offense of crime against nature.

Proposed law repeals the crime of aggravated incest and places the elements and penalties for the crime into the offense of aggravated crime against nature.

Present law provisions in the Children's Code, the Code of Criminal Procedure, and Titles 13, 14, 15, and 40 of the La. Revised Statutes regarding criminal procedure, sex offender registration and notification, determination of mental capacity or incapacity, diminution of sentence, grounds for termination of parental rights, and the use of public funds for certain purposes reference the present law crimes of incest, aggravated incest, crime against nature, and aggravated crime against nature.

Proposed law amends these present law provisions to reflect the proposed law placement of the elements of the crime of incest into the offense of crime against nature and aggravated incest into the offense of aggravated crime against nature.

Proposed law directs the La. State Law Institute to change all references in La. law from "incest" to "crime against nature" and from "aggravated incest" to "aggravated crime against nature" to reflect the changes made in proposed law.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
