

1           WHEREAS, in 2000, Mr. Reynolds pitched an exceptional one hundred three wins 2 and eighty-six losses season, earning him a position in the all-star game; and

3           WHEREAS, besides being an exceptional pitcher, Mr. Reynolds was talented as a 4 batter, posting a .141 career average with five home runs; and

5           WHEREAS, after leaving the Astros, Mr. Reynolds played with the Atlanta Braves 6 in 2003 and the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2004; and

7           WHEREAS, with his outstanding talent and gifted pitching arm, Mr. Reynolds 8 earned several opening day starts throughout his impressive career, pitching thirteen seasons
9 in the Major League with a one hundred fourteen wins and ninety-six losses career record; 10 and

11           WHEREAS, longtime Astros trainer, Dr. Gene Coleman, compared Mr. Reynolds' 12 work ethic to that of Nolan Ryan; and

13           WHEREAS, because of the pride that Mr. Reynolds brings to his alma mater,
14 Ouachita Christian School, and his remarkable career in the Major League, on Thursday, 15 April 24, Ouachita Christian School Baseball honored him by retiring his number, 37; and

16           WHEREAS, Shane Reynolds' phenomenal and successful career as a professional 17 pitcher and his induction into the 2014 Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame bring great pride to 18 the people of Louisiana who are honored to have him as a native son.

19           THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the 20 Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend and congratulate Shane Reynolds on his 21 induction into the 2014 Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and on his long and memorable
22 career as a Major League Baseball pitcher.

23           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a suitable copy of this Resolution be transmitted 24 to Shane Reynolds.
