Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Present law (Campaign Finance Disclosure Law) requires political committees, candidates, and other persons to file reports disclosing contributions, expenditures, receipts, disbursements, and other specified information. Present law (R.S. 18:1505.2(I)) permits a candidate or a political committee to expend campaign contributions for any lawful purpose, but prohibits the use, loan, or pledging of such funds by any person for personal use unrelated to a political campaign, the holding of a public office or party position, or, in the case of a political committee other than a candidate's principal campaign committee or subsidiary committee, the administrative costs or operating expenses of the political committee. Provides that excess campaign funds may be returned to contributors on a pro rata basis; given as a charitable contribution as provided in federal law (26 U.S.C. 170(c)); given to a charitable organization as defined in federal law (26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3)); expended in support of or in opposition to a proposition, political party, or candidacy of any person; or maintained in a segregated fund for use in future political campaigns or activity related to preparing for future candidacy to elective office. Present law prohibits campaign funds from being used to pay a fine, fee, or penalty imposed pursuant to the Code of Governmental Ethics and prohibits a candidate from using campaign funds to make any payment or expenditure to an immediate family member, with specified exceptions. Present law does not apply to campaign funds received prior to July 15, 1988.

Present law (R.S. 18:1491.7(B)(13) and 1495.5(B)(12)) relative to the disclosure of expenditures, requires that the amount, purpose, and date of each such expenditure be reported and requires that political committees include the name and address of and office sought by candidates on whose behalf each such expenditure was made.

Proposed law relative to the purpose of the expenditure, provides that a brief description of the purpose and also that a description of the purpose as it relates to the expenditure be reported.

Effective Jan. 1, 2015.

(Amends R.S. 18:1491.7(B)(13) and 1495.5(B)(12))
