

Requests the Louisiana State Law Institute to study and make recommendations regarding the laws applicable to the rights of landlords and residential tenants in Louisiana, and make a written report to the legislature no later than February 1, 2016.