HOUSE BILL NO. 94

BY REPRESENTATIVE LEGER

1 AN ACT

2 To amend and reenact R.S. 11:3384(A), (B), and (D) and 3386, relative to new members of 3 the Firefighters' Pension and Relief Fund in the city of New Orleans; to provide 4 relative to membership in the system for such members; to provide relative to 5 retirement eligibility and benefits for such members; to provide relative to 6 beneficiaries and survivors of certain such members; to provide for an effective date;
7 and to provide for related matters.

8 Notice of intention to introduce this Act has been published
9 as provided by Article III, Section 13 and Article X, Section
10 29(C) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

11 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

12 Section 1. R.S. 11:3384(A), (B), and (D) and 3386 are hereby amended and 13 reenacted to read as follows:

14 §3384. Firefighters employed after December 31, 1967; computation of benefits

15 A.(1) Notwithstanding R.S. 11:3381, any firefighter who enters the employ 16 of the fire department after December 31, 1967, and on or before December 31, 17 2014, who has reached the age of fifty years and who has not less than twelve years
18 of service in the fire department, and who is a contributing member of this system, 19 may retire upon his written application to the board setting forth at what time he 20 desires to be retired, provided that, at the time so specified for his retirement, he shall 21 have met the requirements as provided in this Section.

22 (2) Any firefighter who enters the employ of the fire department on or after 23 January 1, 2015, who has reached the age of fifty-two years, who has not less than 24 twelve years of service in the fire department, and who is a contributing member of

1 this system may retire upon his written application to the board setting forth at what 2 time he desires to be retired, if at the time so specified for his retirement he meets the 3 requirements as provided in this Section.

4 B.(1) If the a firefighter employed by the fire department on or before 5 December 31, 2014, has worked one or more hours of service after December 31, 6 1995, he shall receive a retirement benefit equal to two and one-half percent of his 7 average compensation based on the five highest consecutive years of employment, 8 multiplied by the number of years of creditable service. If the member continues to 9 remain a member of the system beyond twelve years of service and such member 10 attains the age of fifty, the retirement benefit for each year or portion of a year 11 beyond twelve years of service and after age fifty shall be an amount equal to three 12 and one-third percent of the average annual compensation for each year or portion 13 of a year. If the member continues service beyond thirty years, the retirement benefit 14 for each year or portion of a year beyond twelve years of service shall be an amount 15 equal to three and one-third percent of the average annual compensation for each 16 year or portion of a year. However, the retirement benefit shall not exceed a total of 17 three and one-third percent each year. The service benefits of such firefighter shall 18 not exceed one hundred percent of the average compensation earned during any five 19 highest average consecutive years of service preceding retirement.

20 (2) A firefighter who enters the employ of the fire department on or after 21 January 1, 2015, shall receive a retirement benefit equal to two and three quarters 22 percent of his average compensation based on the five highest consecutive years of 23 employment, multiplied by the number of years of creditable service. The service
24 benefits of such firefighters shall not exceed one hundred percent of the average 25 compensation earned during any five highest average consecutive years of service 26 preceding retirement.

28 D.(1) Any member who entered service after December 31, 1967, and on or 29 before December 31, 2014, whose withdrawal from service occurs prior to the 30 attainment of age fifty years and who shall at such time have completed at least

1 twelve years of creditable service, shall remain a member of the retirement system, 2 and in such case said member shall receive a service retirement beginning when he 3 attains the age of fifty years.

4 (2) Any member who enters the employ of the fire department on or after 5 January 1, 2015, whose withdrawal from service occurs prior to the attainment of 6 fifty-two years of age and who shall at such time have completed at least twelve 7 years of creditable service shall remain a member of the retirement system, and in 8 such case said member shall receive a service retirement beginning when he attains 9 fifty-two years of age.

11 §3386. Vested rights and benefits

12 A. Any member employed by the fire department on or before December 31, 13 2014, whose withdrawal from service occurs prior to the attainment of age fifty years 14 and who shall at such time have completed at least twelve years but less than twenty 15 of creditable service shall remain a member of the pension and relief fund, and, in 16 such a case, ~~said~~ the member shall receive a service retirement benefit beginning 17 when he attains the age of fifty years, provided such member has not withdrawn his 18 accumulated contributions. The retirement benefit to be paid shall be two and 19 one-half percent of average compensation during the best year of service preceding 20 the date of withdrawal from service for each year of credited service. If the member 21 dies after withdrawal from service but prior to attaining age fifty but having twelve 22 years credited service, his widow and/or children and/or survivors shall be entitled 23 to receive his accumulated contributions in a lump sum with interest credited thereto.
24 If the member receiving benefits under this ~~Section~~ Subsection dies, his surviving 25 widow shall receive the minimum benefit as set forth in R.S. 11:3383. If the member
26 receiving benefits under this ~~Section~~ Subsection dies leaving a widow and children 27 under the age of eighteen, then the widow and children under eighteen years of age
28 shall receive the minimum benefit as set forth in R.S. 11:3383 equally divided 29 between them. When the children of the member attain the age of eighteen or

1 become married while receiving benefits under this ~~Section~~ Subsection, the benefits
2 they are receiving shall be paid to the widow of the member.

3 B. Any member who enters the employ of the fire department on or after 4 January 1, 2015, whose withdrawal from service occurs prior to the attainment of
5 fifty-two years of age and who shall at such time have completed at least twelve 6 years but less than twenty years of creditable service shall remain a member of the 7 pension and relief fund, and, in such a case, said member shall receive a service 8 retirement benefit beginning when he attains fifty-two years of age, provided such 9 member has not withdrawn his accumulated contributions. The retirement benefit 10 to be paid shall be two and one-half percent of average compensation during the best 11 year of service preceding the date of withdrawal from service for each year of 12 credited service. If the member dies after withdrawal from service but prior to 13 attaining age fifty-two but having twelve years credited service, his widow, child or 14 children, or estate, as applicable, shall be entitled to receive his accumulated 15 contributions in a lump sum with interest credited thereto. If the member receiving 16 benefits under this Subsection dies, his surviving widow shall receive the minimum 17 benefit as set forth in R.S. 11:3383. If the member receiving benefits under this 18 Subsection dies leaving a widow and children under the age of eighteen, then the 19 widow and children under eighteen years of age shall receive the minimum benefit 20 as set forth in R.S. 11:3383 equally divided between them. When the children of the 21 member attain the age of eighteen or become married while receiving benefits under 22 this Subsection, the benefits they are receiving shall be paid to the widow of the 23 member.

24 Section 2.(A) There is hereby created the New Orleans Firefighters' Pension Study
25 Group. The group shall be composed of six members as follows:

26 (1) One member appointed by the Speaker of the House from the New Orleans 27 legislative delegation.
