

Prior law required candidates qualifying for an election to file a personal financial statement disclosure report.

New law provides that candidates qualifying for an election prior to April 15th do not have to certify on the personal financial disclosure report that they have filed their federal or state income tax returns or filed for an extension for the prior year.

Prior law required public servants other than legislators to file income disclosures for state or political subdivision contracts by May first. New law changes the due date of income disclosures for public servants other than legislator to May 15th.

Prior law required Tier 1, 2, and 2.1 personal financial disclosures to include filer's and spouse's name, address, and employment information. New law adds required information to the Tier 3 personal financial disclosures regarding the filer's name, address, and employment and any spouse's name, occupation, and principal business address.

Effective August 1, 2014.

(Amends R.S. 18:1495.7(A) and R.S. 42:1114(C)(1) and (E); adds R.S. 42:1124.3(C)(3), (4), and (5))