

Urges and requests the office of conservation to study the potential effect of implementing certain requirements for operators of salt dome caverns and the benefit to be gained from the implementation of such requirements.