

New law designates the office of multimodal planning in the Dept. of Transportation and Development as the state safety oversight entity for fixed guideway rail systems pursuant to federal law.

New law grants the office the authority to inspect, audit, review, enforce laws, implement rules and regulations, and take action against operators and fixed guideway rail systems.

Effective August 1, 2014.

(Adds R.S. 48:214)