

Prior law required a clerk to record in a bound book all judicial bonds, particularly those given by tutors, administrators of successions, and curators.

New law repeals prior law.

Effective Aug. 1, 2014.

(Repeals R.S. 13:1218)