

Requests public postsecondary education institutions offering baccalaureate degrees to develop and promote plans that will enable students to complete such degrees in three years.