8 further legal proceedings and documents in the continuation, disposition, and enforcement
9 of such legal proceeding shall be in the name of the Central Louisiana Regional Port, and
10 the Central Louisiana Regional Port shall be substituted for the prior plans, projects, policies,
11 and programs without necessity for amendment of any document. This Act shall not be
12 construed so as to impair the effectiveness of any rule or policy of either of the prior plans,
13 projects, policies, and programs and any such rule or policy shall remain effective as 14 provided therein or until changed in accordance with law. This Act shall not be construed
15 so as to impair the contractual or other obligations of either of the prior plans, projects,
16 policies, and programs or of the state of Louisiana. All obligations of the prior plans,
17 projects, policies, and programs shall be the obligations of the new Central Louisiana
18 Regional Port. The new Central Louisiana Regional Port shall be the successor in every way
19 to the prior plans, projects, policies, and programs, including all of their obligations and 20 debts. All dedications and allocations of revenues and sources of revenues heretofore made
21 to or for either of the prior plans, projects, policies, and programs shall continue in the same
22 manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as were provided prior to the 23 enactment of this Act, unless and until other provision is made therefor. All books, papers, 24 records, money, actions, and other property of every kind, movable and immovable, real and
25 personal, heretofore possessed, controlled, or used by either of the prior plans, projects,
26 policies, and programs are hereby transferred to the new Central Louisiana Regional Port.
27 All employees heretofore engaged in the performance of duties of the prior plans, projects,
28 policies, and programs, insofar as practicable and necessary, are transferred to the new
29 Central Louisiana Regional Port and insofar as practicable and necessary shall continue to

1 perform the duties heretofore performed, subject to policies and procedures of the new
2 Central Louisiana Regional Port, applicable state civil service laws, rules, and regulations,
3 and other applicable laws. Subject to such laws, positions in the unclassified service shall
4 remain in the unclassified service.

5 Section 6. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not
6 signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature
7 by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If 8 vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become 9 effective on the day following such approval.

Abstract: Changes the name of the Alexandria Regional Port to the Central Louisiana Regional Port and changes the territorial limits of such port from the municipal limits of the city of Alexandria to the parish of Rapides, excluding any private port facility.

Present law provides for an Alexandria Regional Port with territorial limits concurrent with that of the municipal limits of the city of Alexandria.

Proposed law changes the name of the Alexandria Regional Port to the Central Louisiana Regional Port and changes territorial limits of such port from the municipal limits of the city of Alexandria to the parish of Rapides, excluding any private port facility.

Present law provides that the Alexandria Regional Port shall be governed by a board of commissioners composed of eight members, who serve without compensation and who are appointed as follows:

- (1) Five of the commissioners are appointed by the mayor of the city of Alexandria and confirmed by the Alexandria City Council. Each commissioner is to be a citizen of the United States, a qualified voter of the state of Louisiana, and a resident of the city of Alexandria.
- (2) Three of the commissioners are appointed as follows: one commissioner appointed at large by the parish governing authority of Rapides Parish, one commissioner appointed at large by the parish governing authority of Grant Parish, and one commissioner appointed at large by the parish governing authority of Avoyelles Parish.

Proposed law modifies present law and provides that the Central Louisiana Regional Port shall be governed by a board of commissioners composed of the following members, who shall serve without compensation and who shall be appointed as follows:

- (1) Four of the commissioners shall be appointed by the mayor of the city of Alexandria and confirmed by the Alexandria City Council. Each commissioner shall be a citizen of the United States, a qualified voter of the state of Louisiana, and a resident of the city of Alexandria.
- (2) Three commissioners shall be appointed by the parish governing authority of Rapides Parish. Each commissioner shall be a citizen of the United States, a qualified voter of the state of Louisiana, and a resident of Rapides Parish.
- (3) Two commissioners shall be appointed by the mayor of Pineville and confirmed by the Pineville City Council. Each commissioner shall be a citizen of the United States, a qualified voter of the state of Louisiana, and a resident of the city of Pineville.
- (4) One commissioner shall be appointed by the mayors of the incorporated municipalities other than Alexandria and Pineville. The commissioner shall be a citizen of the United States, a qualified voter of the state of Louisiana, and a resident of an incorporated municipality within Rapides Parish other than Alexandria or Pineville.

Present law provides that one of the commissioners initially appointed by the mayor of Alexandria the served an initial term of one year. Two of the commissioners initially appointed by the mayor of Alexandria served an initial term of two years. Two of the commissioners initially appointed by the mayor of Alexandria served an initial term of three years. Thereafter, the successors to each of the commissioners appointed by the mayor of Alexandria are appointed for terms of four years. The commissioners representing the Red River Waterway Commission are to serve terms concurrent with their terms on that commission.

Proposed law removes present law and provides that the commissioners for board of the Central Louisiana Regional Port shall be appointed to four-year terms after initial terms as provided in proposed law:

- (1) The four commissioners appointed by the mayor of the city of Alexandria and confirmed by the Alexandria City Council shall serve initial terms of four years, three years, two years, and one year, respectively, as designated by the mayor.
- (2) The three commissioners appointed by the governing authority of Rapides Parish shall serve initial terms of four years and three years, respectively, as designated by the governing authority of Rapides Parish.
- (3) The two commissioners appointed by the mayor of Pineville and confirmed by the Pineville City Council shall serve initial terms of four years and three years, respectively, as designed by the mayor.
- (4) The commissioner appointed by the mayors of the incorporated municipalities outside of Alexandria and Pineville shall serve an initial term of four years.

Proposed law provides that in the event that a nominating entity fails to appoint a commissioner ninety days after the effective date of proposed law, the board shall appoint an interim commissioner to serve on the board until the position is filled by the respective nominating entity responsible for the appointment of such commissioner.

Present law provides the board of commissioners shall exercise its powers within the port area, consisting of the entire city of Alexandria, including the port facility owned by the city of Alexandria.

Proposed law provides that the board of commissioners shall exercise its powers within the port area, consisting of the entire parish of Rapides, excluding any private port facility.

Proposed law provides for transitional provisions to complete the transfer of all obligations, rights, duties, property, and the like from the existing Alexandria Regional Port to the proposed Central Louisiana Regional Port.

Present law establishes a port authority in Rapides parish and provides for the jurisdiction, rights, powers, privileges, immunities of the port authority and the composition of the board of commissioners.

Proposed law repeals present law.
