HB 382 Original

2016 Regular Session

Havard

Abstract: Calls a limited constitutional convention to convene on Jan. 9, 2017, to be composed of 123 delegates, 105 elected from representative districts and 18 appointed. Requires convention to complete a new constitution by May 30, 2018. Limits convention to changes relative to state and local finance, raising revenue, and allocation and expenditure of funds.

Proposed law states legislative findings that there is a need to address a number of key policy areas that require constitutional change, that the constitution restricts the legislature in effectively addressing state and constituent needs, and that a serious analysis and revision of the state constitution is needed to conduct an examination of the state's critical needs, to consider reform proposals, and to craft provisions that allow legislative solutions.

Also permits the convention, for the same purposes, to: (1) renumber or rearrange provisions, (2) transfer or divide provisions, (3) change reference designations to conform to redesignated provisions, and (4) make any other purely formal or clerical changes in keeping with the purpose of the revision.

Provides that any action by the convention in contravention of the provisions relative to substantive restrictions shall be null and void and of no effect.
