

1 sound disorders in young children is eight to nine percent, and between six and eight million 2 people in the United States have some form of language impairment; and

3 WHEREAS, speech-language pathologists, sometimes called speech therapists, 4 assess, diagnose, treat and help to prevent disorders related to speech, language, cognitive 5 communication, voice, swallowing and fluency; and

6 WHEREAS, as technology and training advances, the practice of audiology and 7 speech-language pathology are constantly evolving and it is imperative that the laws 8 governing this practice stay current and applicable to the discipline; and

9 WHEREAS, the statutes governing speech-language and audiology have not been 10 updated since 1995; and

11 WHEREAS, the Legislature of Louisiana wants to ensure that the practices of 12 audiology and speech-language pathology are modernized as necessary to ensure the best 13 outcomes for our citizens, which may or may not require statutory changes.

14 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 15 direct the Louisiana Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology to 16 evaluate and report on licensing requirements and procedures that may need to be updated 17 in current law.

18 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the board shall submit a report of its findings 19 and recommendations, giving specific explanations of any proposed law changes, to the 20 legislature no later than October 1, 2016.

21 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the 22 executive director of the Louisiana Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and 23 Audiology.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Christine Arbo Peck.

SCR 5 Original

DIGEST
2016 Regular Session

Claitor

Directs the Louisiana Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology to evaluate and report on licensing requirements and procedures that may need to be updated in current law.