

2016 Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 601

BY REPRESENTATIVE JACKSON

AGRICULTURE: Provides relative to the susceptibility of the Department of Agriculture and Forestry being declared an indispensable party in certain lawsuits

1 AN ACT

2 To enact R.S. 3:11, relative to suits against the Department of Agriculture and Forestry; to
3 provide for the department's susceptibility to suits under certain conditions; and to
4 provide for related matters.

5 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

6 Section 1. R.S. 3:11 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

7 §11. Suits against the department

8 A. The department shall not be an indispensable party in any suit filed
9 against a board or commission or its members pursuant to this Title if the majority
10 of the board's appointments are not made by the commissioner.

DIGEST

The digest printed below was prepared by House Legislative Services. It constitutes no part of the legislative instrument. The keyword, one-liner, abstract, and digest do not constitute part of the law or proof or indicia of legislative intent. [R.S. 1:13(B) and 24:177(E)]

HB 601 Engrossed

2016 Regular Session

Jackson

Abstract: Prohibits the Department of Agriculture and Forestry from being declared an indispensable party for suits filed against the department in certain circumstances.

Proposed law prohibits the department from being an indispensable party in any suit filed against a board or commission or its members if the majority of the board's appointments are not made by the commissioner.

(Adds R.S. 3:11)