1 A RESOLUTION

2 To express the condolences of the House of Representatives upon the death of Jerry 3 Barksdale Byrd, Sr.

4 WHEREAS, the members of the House of Representatives were saddened to learn 5 of the departure from this life of Jerry Barksdale Byrd, Sr., on April 21, 2016, at the age of 6 eighty; and

7 WHEREAS, the second of Frank Carl and Annie Laura Byrd's four sons, Jerry Byrd
8 was born October 4, 1935, and just thirteen years after his arrival on Earth, Jerry's first 9 written work appeared in the Shreveport Journal in the form of a scouting report published 10 in the Shreveport Journal; and

11 WHEREAS, Jerry Byrd was the first boy scout in the Norwella Council to win the 12 Quill Scroll Award, given to scouts who publish more than twenty thousand words; it was 13 the first of many awards for one of Louisiana's most decorated sports journalists; and

14 WHEREAS, at Hamilton Terrace Junior High School, Jerry Byrd played left tackle 15 on a team that went unbeaten, untied, and was not scored on but despite the team's success,
16 Jerry realized that he belonged in the press box and not on the field; he transferred to Fair 17 Park High School in his junior year where he found his niche on the school's newspaper, the 18 Pow Wow, and was sports editor his senior year; and

19 WHEREAS, Jerry Byrd majored in journalism at Northwestern State College, 20 worked as a manager for the Northwestern State Demon basketball team, ran and won an

1 intramural cross country race, and was sports editor and elected as editor of the Current 2 Sauce, Northwestern State's school newspaper; and

3 WHEREAS, Jerry graduated from Northwestern State on May 28, 1957, and began 4 his professional journalism career the very next morning at the Shreveport Journal; some 5 thirteen years later, Jerry Byrd was named sports editor of the paper and retained his position
6 until the Journal ceased publication in 1991; he published a column in every weekday 7 edition for more than six years; and

8 WHEREAS, Jerry Byrd was sports editor of the Minden Press Herald and the 9 Bossier Press Tribune; he held the position at the Tribune from 1993-2012; and

10 WHEREAS, in 1992, Jerry Byrd became the first recipient of the Lifetime
11 Achievement Award from the Louisiana Track & Field Coaches Association; he is the only 12 sportswriter to be selected "Mr. Basketball" by the Louisiana Basketball Coaches 13 Association; in 1996, he received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Louisiana 14 Sportswriters Association; he was inducted in the Louisiana High School Athletic 15 Association Hall of Fame in 2001, only the second sportswriter so honored; the Contribution
16 to Amateur Football award was given to Jerry Byrd in 2005 from the S.M. McNaughton 17 Chapter of the National Football Foundation; in 2006, he received the Nth Degree from 18 Northwestern State University for lifetime achievement; and in 2012, Jerry Byrd was 19 inducted into the Ark-La-Tex Sports Museum of Champions; and

20 WHEREAS, Jerry Barksdale Byrd, Sr., founded and coached the Shreveport Track
21 Club and coached the City of Shreveport Swim Team; he organized the High Five Track & 22 Field Series and the Meet of Champions; and

23 WHEREAS, most are blessed to find one true love in this life, but Jerry found two;
24 he married Patricia "Pat" Ann Hood on June 12, 1965, and to this union, Tricia and Jerry,
25 Jr., were born; Pat Byrd left her beloved Jerry for an eternal home in 2001; in June 2003, 26 Jerry met Barbara Copeland and the couple were married two months later; and

27 WHEREAS, although the departure of a loved one leaves a void that can never be 28 filled, family, friends, and colleagues will fondly recall good times shared with Jerry 29 Barksdale Byrd, Sr., and left to cherish his memory are Barbara, his wife; son Jerry Jr., and 30 wife Amanda, and daughter Tricia Hagan; brothers Ronald James Byrd and wife Donna,

1 John Alan Byrd and wife Delaine, and Thomas Everett Byrd and wife Kay; grandchildren
2 Logan, Dakota, and Jordan Ward, Caleb Stacey, Caitlin Byrd, and Emily and Katy Bailey; 3 and

4 WHEREAS, Jerry Barksdale Byrd, Sr., was a husband, brother, father, sportswriter,
5 legend, and an icon in journalism, and Louisiana mourns the loss of one of her native sons 6 who wrote for more than fifty years about sports and provided reading entertainment to 7 thousands.

8 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the 9 Legislature of Louisiana does hereby express deepest sympathies to the family and friends
10 of Jerry Barksdale Byrd, Sr., and does hereby extend best hopes for comfort and peace to all 11 whose hearts are hurting at the loss of this journalism legend.

12 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a suitable copy of this Resolution be transmitted 13 to the family of Jerry Barksdale Byrd, Sr.
