MOTOR VEHICLES: Provides relative to requirements of auto title companies

Synopsis of Senate Amendments

- 1. Makes technical changes.
- 2. Changes contract renewal time from annual to biennial.

Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Present law defines "auto title company", in part, to mean "any person, firm, association, or corporation which is engaged primarily in the transfer and recordation of sales, leases, or mortgages of vehicles including but not limited to mobile homes, trailers, and motor vehicles."

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law authorizes auto title companies who have confected a contract with the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections, office of motor vehicles, to issue temporary registrations in certain circumstances.

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law requires an annual fee of $200 to be collected from a person seeking to contract with the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections, office of motor vehicles, prior to the person commencing to act as an auto title company. Requires the auto title company to pay an additional $50 for each additional location.

Proposed law changes the fee to $400 biennially and $100 for each additional location.

Present law requires every contract between the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections, office of motor vehicles, and an authorized auto title company, to expire the first day of June following the year in which such license was issued.

Present law requires every contract between Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections, office of motor vehicles, and an authorized auto title company, to expire the first day of June two years following the year in which such license was issued. Authorizes the department to automatically renew such license.

Present law requires each auto title company to execute a $10,000 surety bond for one location and a $20,000 surety bond for multiple locations.

Proposed law requires a $100,000 surety bond for only one location and a $125,000 surety bond for multiple locations.

Present law provides that each contract perfected under present law shall be renewed annually at least 60 days in advance of the expiration date of the contract by submitting to the office of motor vehicles an application for renewal upon a form supplied by that office, together with the renewal fee and the surety bond for the renewal period.

Proposed law changes contract renewal time from annual to biennial.

Proposed law exempts auto title companies under contract on the effective date of proposed law from the increased surety amounts until their contract renewal date.

Proposed law extends contracts executed prior to the effective date of proposed law for one additional year without need for amendment to the contract upon payment of the required $200 fee plus an additional $50 fee for each additional location.

Effective Aug. 1, 2016.
