28 submission in a judicial proceeding, or prohibit the issuance of an order in a judicial

The filing of an acknowledgment or adjudication of paternity in accordance with this Section shall be in conformity with Children's Code Article 1106.

§46. New Amendments to certificate of birth when judgment of filiation is obtained

~~A. Upon request of a child who has obtained a judgment of filiation pursuant to Civil Code Article 197, the state registrar, upon receipt of a copy of the judgment, shall prepare a new certificate of birth in the new name of the child wherein the child's surname shall be that of the father recognized in the judgment or a combination of the surname of the father recognized in the judgment and the maiden name of the mother. The state registrar of vital records is authorized to amend an original birth certificate in accordance with Louisiana law.~~

~~B. If at the time of legitimation the child shall have reached the age of majority, the state registrar shall require an affidavit to be obtained from the district attorney of the place of residence and domicile of the said major child, wherein the district attorney shall state any objections, if any exist, to the name change aspects, prior to the preparation of a new certificate of birth. If there be no objection by the district attorney, the state registrar shall issue a new certificate to the major child. If there be an objection, the state registrar may not proceed to prepare a new certificate until the district attorney's objection, if any, has been resolved. Any change in the surname of a child from that required or allowed in R.S. 40:34.2 shall be made by court order as provided in R.S. 13:4751 through 4755 or as otherwise provided in this Chapter or by rules promulgated thereunder.~~

~~C. The new certificate of birth shall be signed by the child's father prior to its recordation in the vital records registry and only after such signing and recordation may certified copies or short form birth certification cards be issued as in the case of all other birth records.~~

~~D. The child's original birth certificate and the evidence upon which the new certificate was made shall be sealed in a package or envelope and filed in the archives of the vital records registry of the division of vital records. This sealed~~

~~package or envelope may be opened only pursuant to an order of the civil district court for good cause.~~

~~E. Upon presentation of any other form of legitimation or acknowledgment permitted by the laws of this state, together with a request for an alteration of an original certificate of birth, the matter will be processed in accordance with rules and regulations of the vital records registry promulgated pursuant to R.S. 40:33(C).~~

§46.1. Amended birth certificates; change of biological filiation; general principle

If the biological filiation of a child changes after a birth certificate has been prepared for the child, the state registrar shall amend the birth certificate to reflect this change, in accordance with R.S. 40:46.2 through 46.11.

Revision Comments - 2016

(a) This Section and those that follow are new. They are intended to provide a comprehensive framework for executing amendments to a birth certificate that are made necessary by changes in the filiative situation of the child. The foundational principle underlying all of the Sections is that once the filiative situation of the child has changed, his birth certificate should be modified to reflect the new situation. To that end, these Sections call for the "striketrough" (by means of lining out) of old information that, in light of the new situation, is no longer accurate and the "addition" (by writing above) of new information that reflects the new situation. The birth certificate, as amended, should read precisely as it would have read had the new filiative situation been known at the start.

(b) This Section and those that follow constitute a mixture of old and new. Some of the Sections merely reproduce comparable provisions of former R.S. 40:34 or of the administrative regulations of the Office of Vital Statistics. Other Sections, by contrast, are entirely new and, in fact, are designed to fill lacunae that existed in the rather incomplete framework that previously existed for amending birth certificates in light of changes in filiation.

§46.2. Change of maternal filiation; child with unidentified mother

A. Following a final and definitive judgment of maternal filiation, rendered pursuant to Civil Code Article 184, the effect of which is to recognize maternal filiation between a woman and a child whose birth certificate did not identify the mother of the child, the state registrar, upon receipt of a certified copy of that judgment, shall amend the birth certificate as follows:

(1) For the surname of the child:

(a) If the adjudged mother was married to a man at the time of the birth of the child, but was not married to another man within three hundred days prior to the birth of the child, enter the surname of her husband.

1 (b) If the adjudged mother was not married to a man at the time of the birth 2 of the child, but was married to a man within three hundred days prior to the birth of 3 the child, enter the surname of her former husband.

4 (c) If the adjudged mother was married to one man at the time of the birth 5 of the child, but was married to another man within three hundred days prior to the 6 birth of the child, enter the surname of the latter.

7 (d) If the adjudged mother was married neither at nor within three hundred 8 days prior to the birth of the child, enter her maiden name or surname, at her 9 discretion.

10 (2) For the name of the mother of the child, her date of birth, race, ethnicity,
11 residence, birthplace, and social security number, the number of children born to her,
12 and the number of children born to her living, enter those of the adjudged mother.

13 (3) For the name of the father of the child, his age, race, ethnicity, and 14 residence, birthplace, and social security number:

15 (a) If the adjudged mother was married to a man at the time of the birth of 16 the child, but was not married to another man within three hundred days prior to the 17 birth of the child, enter those of her husband.

18 (b) If the adjudged mother, though unmarried at the time of the birth of the 19 child, was married to a man within three hundred days prior to the birth of the child, 20 enter those of her former husband.

21 (c) If the adjudged mother was married to one man at the time of the birth 22 of the child, but was married to another man within three hundred days prior to the 23 birth of the child, enter those of the latter.

24 B. In any case to which the provisions of Paragraph (A)(1) of this Section 25 apply, if the man whose surname should be given to the child and the adjudged 26 mother agree that the surname of the child should be either the maiden name or 27 surname of the mother or a combination of his surname and her maiden name or 28 surname, the state registrar shall enter the surname upon which they have agreed.

29 C. Upon the petition of the mother of the child, a court may, for good cause 30 shown, order the state registrar to enter, as the surname of the child, the maiden name

1 or surname of the mother or a combination of the surname of the man whose 2 surname should otherwise be given to the child under Paragraph (A)(1) of this
 3 Section and the maiden name or surname of the mother, whichever she may choose,
 4 even if that man does not concur.

5 Revision Comment - 2016

6 (a) The term "latter", as used in Subparagraphs (A)(1)(c) and (3)(c) of this 7 Section, is to be taken in the grammatical, as opposed to the temporal, sense of that 8 word. Thus, it refers to the second of the two men mentioned therein in the order in 9 which they are mentioned, namely, the man who was married to the mother of the 10 child at the time the child was conceived. The objective of this provision is the same 11 as that of all of the other provisions of this revision that pertain to the identification
 12 of the "father of the child" on the child's birth certificate, namely, that the man listed 13 as the father be the man to whom the child is filiated by law.

14 (b) Under Subsection B of this Section, the mother of the child may not,
 15 without the concurrence of the man whose surname should be given to the child 16 under Paragraph 1 of Subsection A, compel the state registrar to enter any other 17 name than his surname as the surname of the child. Subsection C of this Section 18 carves out an exception to this general rule. On the petition of the mother, a court 19 may dispense with this man's concurrence if she can show good cause for doing so.
 20 An example of a case in which there may be good cause is that in which the father, 21 as of the time of the petition by the mother, is by his own choice not involved in the 22 child's life, that is, is not contributing to the child's support and is not regularly 23 visiting with or at least communicating with the child, and has no intention of 24 becoming so involved.

25 (c) The action provided in Subsection C of this Section is not a filiation
 26 action, that is, is not the kind of action provided for in Civil Code Articles 187, 191, 27 197, and 198 and in R.S. 9:401 et seq. This action concerns only the question of how 28 the surname of the child should be recorded on the child's birth certificate and has 29 no impact on the filiation of the child.

30 §46.3. Change of maternal filiation; child with identified mother

31 A. Following a final and definitive judgment of maternal filiation, rendered 32 pursuant to Civil Code Article 184, the effect of which is to recognize maternal 33 filiation between a child and a woman other than the woman identified in the birth 34 certificate as the mother of the child, the state registrar, upon receipt of a certified 35 copy of that judgment, shall amend the birth certificate as follows:

36 (1) Strikethroughs:

37 (a) Strike through the surname of the child, the name of the mother of the 38 child, and all other information pertaining to the mother, in particular, her date of 39 birth, race, ethnicity, residence, birthplace, and social security number, the number 40 of children born to her, and the number of children born to her living.

1 (b) If the name of the father of the child or other information pertaining to 2 him, in particular, his age, race, ethnicity, residence, birthplace, and social security 3 number, as it was previously entered on the birth certificate, was that of the man 4 who, by virtue of his marriage to the woman previously identified in the birth 5 certificate as the mother of the child, was presumed to be the father of the child
6 under Civil Code Article 185 or 186, the state registrar shall strike through his name 7 and his other information.

8 (2) Additions:

9 (a) For the surname of the child:

10 (i) If the adjudged mother was married to a man at the time of the birth of 11 the child, but was not married to another man within three hundred days prior to the 12 birth of the child, enter the surname of her husband.

13 (ii) If the adjudged mother, though unmarried at the time of the birth of the 14 child, was married to a man within three hundred days prior to the birth of the child, 15 enter the surname of her former husband.

16 (iii) If the adjudged mother was married to one man at the time of the birth 17 of the child, but was married to another man within three hundred days prior to the 18 birth of the child, enter the surname of the latter.

19 (iv) If the adjudged mother was married neither at nor within three hundred 20 days prior to the birth of the child, enter her maiden name or surname, at her
21 discretion.

22 (b) For the name of the mother of the child, her date of birth, race, ethnicity,
23 residence, birthplace, and social security number, the number of children born to her,
24 and the number of children born to her living, enter those of the adjudged mother.

25 (c) For the name of the father of the child, his age, race, ethnicity, residence, 26 birthplace, and social security number:

27 (i) If the adjudged mother was married to a man at the time of the birth of 28 the child, but was not married to another man within three hundred days prior to the 29 birth of the child, enter those of her husband.

1 (ii) If the adjudged mother, though unmarried at the time of the birth of the 2 child, was married to a man within three hundred days prior to the birth of the child,
 3 enter those of her former husband.

4 (iii) If the adjudged mother was married to one man at the time of the birth 5 of the child, but was married to another man within three hundred days prior to the 6 birth of the child, enter those of the latter.

7 B. In any case to which the provisions of Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section 8 apply, if the man whose surname should be given to the child and the adjudged 9 mother agree that the surname of the child should be either the maiden name or 10 surname of the mother, the surname of the man, or a combination of his surname and 11 her maiden name or surname, the state registrar shall enter the surname upon which 12 they have agreed.

13 C. Upon the petition of the mother of the child, a court may, for good cause
 14 shown, order the state registrar to enter, as the surname of the child, the maiden name 15 or surname of the mother or a combination of the surname of the man whose 16 surname should otherwise be given to the child under Paragraph (A)(2) of this 17 Section and the maiden name or surname of the mother, whichever she may choose,
 18 even if that man does not concur.

19 Revision Comments - 2016

20 (a) This Section provides that information pertaining to the father of the 21 child shall, under some circumstances, be deleted from the birth certificate following 22 a final and definitive judgment of maternity the effect of which is to recognize 23 maternal filiation between a child and woman other than the woman previously 24 identified in the birth certificate as the mother. These circumstances include those 25 in which the name of and other information pertaining to the father, as originally 26 entered on the birth certificate, was that of a man who, by virtue of this relationship 27 to the woman who was originally identified as the mother, was presumed to be the 28 father under Civil Code Article 185 or 186.

29 (b) Several of the provisions of this Section permit the surname of the child, 30 as listed in the birth certificate, to be changed, but only on the condition that the 31 "new" mother and father or the "old" mother and the "new" father, as the case may 32 be, agree. These provisions draw no distinction between a case in which, at the time 33 of the proposed change, the child is still a minor and a case in which, at the time of 34 the proposed change, the child has become a major. As applied to a minor child, this 35 "parental consent" requirement could not possibly give rise to any objection. But as 36 applied to a major child, it might. Still, following the foundational principle of the 37 entirety of the Section - that the birth certificate should be modified to conform to 38 how it would have appeared had the new filiative situation been known from the start 39 - the parental consent requirement applies even to cases involving major children.

1 If the major child does not approve of the change, he is entirely free to initiate a 2 "change of name" petition, pursuant to R.S. 13:4751, to alter his surname, yet again, 3 as he may deem appropriate.

4 (c) The term "latter", as used in Items (A)(2)(a)(iii) and (c)(iii) of this 5 Section, is to be taken in the grammatical, as opposed to the temporal, sense of that 6 word. Thus, it refers to the second of the two men mentioned therein in the order in 7 which they are mentioned, namely, the man who was married to the mother of the 8 child at the time the child was conceived. The objective of this provision is the same
 9 as that of all of the other provisions of this revision that pertain to the identification
 10 of the "father of the child" on the child's birth certificate, namely, that the man listed 11 as the father be the man to whom the child is filiated by law.

12 (d) Under Subsection B of this Section, the mother of the child may not,
 13 without the concurrence of the man whose surname should be given to the child 14 under Subsection (A)(2), compel the state registrar to enter any other name than his 15 surname as the surname of the child. Subsection C of this Section carves out an 16 exception to this general rule. See the Official Revision Comments to R.S. 40:46.2.

17 (e) The action provided in Subsection C of this Section is not a filiation
 18 action, that is, is not the kind of action provided for in Civil Code Articles 187, 191, 19 197, and 198 and in R.S. 9:401 et seq. This action concerns only the question of how 20 the surname of the child should be recorded on the child's birth certificate and has 21 no impact on the filiation of the child.

22 §46.4. Change of paternal filiation; disavowal of paternity

23 A. If the surname of the child, the name of the father of the child, or other 24 information pertaining to the father as it was entered on the birth certificate was that 25 of the man who was presumed to be the father of the child under Civil Code Article 26 185, 186, or 195 and if the man or his successor, after the birth certificate was 27 prepared, obtains a final and definitive judgment disavowing paternity of the child, 28 the state registrar, upon receipt of a certified copy of that judgment, shall amend the 29 birth certificate as follows:

30 (1) Strikethroughs: Strike through the surname of the child, the name of the 31 father of the child, and all other information pertaining to him, in particular, his age, 32 race, ethnicity, residence, birthplace, and social security number.

33 (2) Additions:

34 (a) If the judgment of disavowal does not trigger the presumption of 35 paternity established in the first sentence of the second paragraph of Civil Code 36 Article 186, the state registrar shall amend the birth certificate as follows: for the 37 surname of the child, enter the maiden name or surname of the mother of the child, 38 at her discretion.

1 (b) If the disavowal action triggers the presumption of paternity established 2 in the first sentence of the second paragraph of Civil Code Article 186, the state 3 registrar shall amend the birth certificate as follows:

4 (i) For the surname of the child, enter either that of the second husband of 5 the mother of the child or, if both he and the mother agree, her maiden name or 6 surname or a combination of his surname and her maiden name or surname.

7 (ii) For the name of the father of the child, his age, race, ethnicity, residence, 8 birthplace, and social security number, enter those of the second husband of the 9 mother.

10 B. Upon the petition of the mother of the child, a court may, for good cause
11 shown, order the state registrar to enter, as the surname of the child, the maiden name 12 or surname of the mother or a combination of the surname of the man whose 13 surname should otherwise be given to the child under Subparagraph (A)(2)(b) of this 14 Section and the maiden name or surname of the mother, whichever she may choose, 15 even if that man does not concur.

16 Revision Comment - 2016

17 (a) Under Subparagraph (A)(2)(b) of this Section, the mother of the child 18 may not, without the concurrence of the man whose surname should be given to the 19 child, compel the state registrar to enter any other name than his surname as the 20 surname of the child. Subsection B of this Section carves out an exception to this 21 general rule. See the Official Revision Comments to R.S. 40:46.2.

22 (b) The action provided in Subsection B of this Section is not a filiation
23 action, that is, is not the kind of action provided for in Civil Code Articles 187, 191,
24 197, and 198 and in R.S. 9:401 et seq. This action concerns only the question of how 25 the surname of the child should be recorded on the child's birth certificate and has 26 no impact on the filiation of the child.

27 §46.5. Change of paternal filiation; contestation and establishment of paternity

28 If the surname of the child, the name of the father of the child, or other 29 information pertaining to the father as it was entered on the birth certificate was that 30 of the man who was presumed to be the father of the child under Civil Code Article 31 185 or 186 and if the mother of the child, after the birth certificate was prepared, 32 obtains a final and definitive judgment contesting and establishing paternity of the 33 child, the state registrar, upon receipt of a certified copy of that final and definitive 34 judgment, shall amend the birth certificate as follows:

1 ~~(1) Strikethroughs: Strike through the surname of the child, the name of the~~ 2 ~~father of the child, and the other information pertaining to the father, in particular,~~ 3 ~~his age, race, ethnicity, residence, birthplace, and social security number.~~

4 (2) Additions:

5 (a) For the surname of the child, enter either that of the present husband of 6 the mother or, if both agree, her maiden name or surname or a combination of his 7 surname and her maiden name or surname.

8 (b) For the name of the father and his age, race, ethnicity, residence, 9 birthplace, and social security number, enter those of the present husband of the 10 mother.

11 (c) Upon the petition of the mother of the child, a court may, for good cause
12 shown, order the state registrar to enter, as the surname of the child, the maiden name 13 or surname of the mother or a combination of the surname of the man whose 14 surname should otherwise be given to the child under Subparagraph (a) of this 15 Paragraph and the maiden name or surname of the mother, whichever she may 16 choose, even if that man does not concur.

17 Revision Comment - 2016

18 Under Subparagraph (2)(a) of this Section, the mother of the child may not,
19 without the concurrence of the man whose surname should be given to the child 20 under that Subparagraph, compel the state registrar to enter any other name than his 21 surname as the surname of the child. Subparagraph (2)(c) of this Section carves out 22 an exception to this general rule. See the Official Revision Comments to R.S.
23 40:46.2.

24 §46.6. Change of paternal filiation; marriage and formal acknowledgment

25 Following the birth of a child, if Civil Code Article 195 applies, the state 26 registrar, upon receipt of (i) a certified copy of the certificate of the marriage of the 27 mother of the child, (ii) a certified copy of the act in which her husband formally 28 acknowledged the child, and (iii) if the mother did not sign the act of 29 acknowledgment, her affidavit that she concurs in this formal acknowledgment, shall 30 amend the birth certificate as follows:

31 ~~(1) Strikethroughs: If the mother and her husband have agreed that the~~ 32 ~~surname of the child should be changed and, in addition, have agreed that the new~~

1 surname should be either the maiden name or surname of the mother, the surname
2 of her husband, or a combination of his surname and her maiden name or surname, 3 strike through the surname of the child.

4 (2) Additions:

5 (a) If the mother and her husband have agreed that the surname of the child 6 should be changed and, in addition, have agreed that the new surname should be 7 either the maiden name or surname of the mother, the surname of her husband, or a 8 combination of his surname and her maiden name or surname, enter the surname 9 upon which they have agreed.

10 (b) For the name of the father, his age, race, ethnicity, residence, birthplace,

12 §46.7. Change of paternal filiation; formal acknowledgment alone

13 A. In a case to which Civil Code Article 196 applies, the state registrar, upon 14 receipt of (i) a certified copy of the act of formal acknowledgment and (ii) if the 15 mother did not sign the act of acknowledgment, her affidavit that she concurs in this 16 formal acknowledgment, shall amend the birth certificate as follows:

17 (1) Strikethroughs: If the mother and the man who made the 18 acknowledgment have agreed that the surname of the child should be changed and, 19 in addition, have agreed that the new surname should be either the maiden name or 20 surname of the mother, the surname of the man who made the acknowledgment, or 21 a combination of his surname and her maiden name or surname, strike through the 22 surname of the child.

23 (2) Additions:

24 (a) If the mother and the man who made the acknowledgment have agreed 25 that the surname of the child should be changed and, in addition, have agreed that the 26 new surname should be either the maiden name or surname of the mother, the 27 surname of the man who made the acknowledgment, or a combination of his 28 surname and her maiden name or surname, enter the surname upon which they have 29 agreed.

1 (b) For the name of the father and his age, race, ethnicity, residence, 2 birthplace, and social security number, enter those of the man who made the 3 acknowledgment.

4 B. If, after a birth certificate has been amended pursuant to Subsection A of 6 it, the state registrar, upon receipt of the form described in R.S. 9:406(A)(1)(a) or a

1 B. Following a final and definitive judgment of paternal filiation, rendered 2 pursuant to Civil Code Article 197 or 198, the effect of which is to establish paternal 3 filiation between a child and a man other than the man identified in the birth 4 certificate as the father of the child, the state registrar, upon receipt of a certified 5 copy of the judgment, shall amend the birth certificate as follows:

6 (1) Strikethroughs: If the mother of the child and the adjudged father have 7 agreed that the surname of the child should be changed and, in addition, have agreed 8 that the new surname should be either the maiden name or surname of the mother, 9 the surname of the adjudged father, or a combination of his surname and her maiden 10 name or surname, and if the man whom the birth certificate identified as the father 11 of the child does not object, strike through the surname of the child.

12 (2) Additions:

13 (a) If the mother of the child and the adjudged father have agreed that the 14 surname of the child should be changed and, in addition, have agreed that the new 15 surname should be either the maiden name or surname of the mother, the surname 16 of the adjudged father, or a combination of his surname and her maiden name or 17 surname, and if the man whom the birth certificate identified as the father of the 18 child does not object, enter the surname upon which they have agreed.

19 (b) For the name of the father and his age, race, ethnicity, residence, 20 birthplace, and social security number, enter above the existing entries those of the 21 adjudged father.

22 (3) Upon the petition of the mother or the adjudged father of the child, a 23 court may, for good cause shown, order that the surname of the child as it appears 24 on the birth certificate be changed in conformity with this Section despite the 25 objection of the man whom the birth certificate identified as the father of the child.

26 Revision Comment - 2016

27 (a) Under Subsection B of this Section, which addresses cases in which a 28 judgment of paternal filiation under Civil Code Article 197 or 198 results in dual 29 paternity, the surname of the child as it appears on the birth certificate ordinarily 30 cannot be changed without the concurrence of "the man whom the birth certificate 31 identified as the father", in other words, the child's "first" father (the presumed 32 father). Nevertheless, there may be rare instances in which permitting the first father 33 to "veto" a change of the child's surname to which the mother and the "second" father

1 (the adjudged father) have agreed would be unjust. Subsection (B)(3) addresses this 2 unusual contingency. A court may, in effect, dispense with the first father's 3 concurrence if the mother and the second father can show good cause for doing so.
 4 One instance of good cause is that in which the first father, as of the time of the 5 petition by the mother and the second father, is by his own choice no longer involved 6 in the child's life, that is, is not contributing to the child's support and is not regularly 7 visiting with or at least communicating with the child.

8 (b) The action provided in Subsection (B)(3) of this Section is not a filiation
 9 action, that is, is not the kind of action provided for in Civil Code Articles 187, 191,
 10 197, and 198 and in R.S. 9:401 et seq. This action concerns only the question of how 11 the surname of the child should be recorded on the child's birth certificate and has 12 no impact on the filiation of the child.

13 §46.9. Married mother physically separated from husband prior to and at time of 14 birth

15 A. If, following the birth of a child to a married woman, a birth certificate 16 was prepared for the child in accordance with R.S. 40:34.2(B), if the husband and the 17 mother of the child lived separate and apart continuously for one hundred eighty 18 days prior to the time of conception of the child and did not reconcile since the 19 beginning of the one hundred eighty-day period, and if the biological father of the 20 child is a man other than the husband of the mother, then the birth certificate of the 21 child may be amended so that the surname of the child is the maiden name of the 22 mother, or, if the mother, her husband, and the biological father of the child agree, 23 the surname of the child may be that of the biological father or a combination of the 24 surname of the biological father and the maiden name of the mother. The 25 Department of Health and Hospitals, office of public health, shall develop a form for 26 the purposes of implementing this Section.

27 B. Upon the petition of the mother of the child, a court may, for good cause
 28 shown, order the state registrar to enter, as the surname of the child, the maiden name 29 or surname of the mother or a combination of the surname of the biological father 30 and the maiden name or surname of the mother, whichever she may choose, even if 31 that man does not concur.

32 Revision Comment - 2016

33 Under Subsection A of this Section, the mother of the child may not, without 34 the concurrence of the man whose surname should be given to the child, compel the 35 state registrar to enter any other name than his surname as the surname of the child.
 36 Subsection B of this Section carves out an exception to this general rule. On the 37 petition of the mother, a court may effectively dispense with this man's concurrence

1 if she can show good cause for doing so. An example of a case in which there may 2 be good cause is that in which the father, as of the time of the petition by the mother, 3 is by his own choice not involved in the child's life, that is, is not contributing to the 4 child's support and is not regularly visiting with or at least communicating with the 5 child, and has no intention of becoming so involved.

6 §46.10. Child born as a result of a surrogacy agreement

7 A. In the case of a child born of a surrogate birth parent who is related by 8 blood or affinity to a biological parent, the biological parents, proven to be so by 9 DNA testing, shall be considered the parents of the child.

10 B. In the case of a child born of a surrogate birth parent who is related by 11 blood or affinity to a biological parent, the surname of the biological parents of the 12 child shall be the surname of the child.

13 C. In the case of a child born of a surrogate birth parent who is related by 14 blood or affinity to a biological parent, the birth certificate of the child shall be 15 amended so that the full name of the biological parent who is proven to be the father 16 by DNA testing shall be listed as the father.

17 D. In the case of a child born of a surrogate birth parent who is related by 18 blood or affinity to a biological parent, the birth certificate of the child shall be 19 amended so that the full name, including the maiden name and other surname, of the 20 biological parent who is proved to be the mother by DNA testing shall be listed as 21 the mother, and the name of the surrogate birth parent shall be struck through.

22 §46.11. Review by district attorney

23 At the time at which the child requests the amendment of the existing birth 24 certificate under R.S. 40:46 et seq., the state registrar shall require an affidavit to be 25 obtained from the district attorney of the parish in which the child resides or is 26 domiciled stating any objection to the name change. If the district attorney does not 27 object, the state registrar shall prepare a new birth certificate for the major child. If 28 there is an objection, the state registrar may not proceed to prepare a new birth 29 certificate until the district attorney's objection has been resolved.

1 §46.12. Hospital-based paternity program

2 A. Any hospital in the state which provides birthing services shall have a 3 program that allows for the voluntary acknowledgment of paternity during the period 4 immediately before or after the birth of a child.

5 B. During the period immediately before or after the birth of a child to an 6 unmarried woman, a hospital-based program established in accordance with this 7 Section shall, at a minimum:

8 (1) Provide to both the mother and alleged father, if he is present in the 9 hospital:

10 (a) Written materials about paternity establishment.

11 (b) The forms necessary to voluntarily acknowledge paternity.

12 (c) A written description of the rights, responsibilities, and alternatives as 13 provided in R.S. 9:392(A) which are involved in acknowledging paternity.

14 (d) The opportunity to speak with hospital personnel, either by telephone or 15 in person, who are trained to clarify information and answer questions about 16 paternity establishment.

17 (2) Provide the mother and alleged father, if he is present, the opportunity 18 to voluntarily acknowledge paternity in the hospital in accordance with the Civil 19 Code and R.S. 9:392.

20 (3) Afford due process safeguards.

21 (4) Forward completed acknowledgments to the state registrar.

22 C. Hospital support personnel that provide birthing services shall possess 23 notarial powers to administer oaths to and authenticate signatures of any persons in 24 connection with execution of a formal acknowledgment of paternity in accordance 25 with this Section. Any oaths administered or signatures authenticated pursuant to 26 this Section shall have the same force and effect as if taken or signed before a duly 27 commissioned notary public.

28 D. Hospital personnel shall forward an acknowledgment of paternity to the 29 state registrar who shall forward copies of same to the Department of Children and 30 Family Services, office of children and family services, child support enforcement

1 section. A statewide database shall be maintained by the Department of Children
2 and Family Services in accordance with federal regulations.

3 E. A voluntary acknowledgment executed in accordance with this Section 4 shall be signed by both parents and the parents' signatures shall be authenticated by 5 a person possessing notarial powers in accordance with state laws.

6 F. The Department of Children and Family Services, office of children and 7 family services, child support enforcement section shall provide to all birthing 8 hospitals in the state:

9 (1) Written materials about paternity establishment.

10 (2) Forms necessary to voluntarily acknowledge paternity.

11 (3) Copies of a written description of the rights, responsibilities, and 12 alternatives as provided in R.S. 9:392(A) which are involved in acknowledging 13 paternity.

14 (4) Training, guidance, and written instructions relative to voluntary 15 acknowledgment of paternity, as necessary to operate the hospital-based program.

16 (5) An assessment of each birthing hospital's program on at least an annual 17 basis.

18 G. Except in the case of intentional misconduct, no hospital or any agent or 19 employee thereof shall be held civilly or criminally liable for any action or omission 20 arising out of the performance of, attempted performance of, or failure or inability 21 to perform the duties imposed herein.

22 ~~§46.2.~~ §46.13. Paternity establishment services

25 Department of Health and Human Services. The state registrar may designate 26 specific employees in the offices of the vital records registry who shall possess 27 notarial powers to administer an oath to any person in connection with any document
