SB 198 Original DIGEST Mizell
2017 Regular Session

Proposed law provides that it is the intention of the legislature to preserve the historical educational tools of our state in furtherance of the rights declared in the Louisiana Constitution.

Proposed law provides that the following items must have approval by the legislature prior to being relocated, removed, disturbed, or altered:

- (1) Any museum, scientific or cultural facility provided for in Title 25 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.
- (2) Any monument, memorial, or plaque which has been in existence for at least twenty-five years.
- (3) Any landmark listed on the National Register of Historical Places.
- (4) Any landmark listed on any historical registry which has received any state or federal funds.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
