Provides right of oral argument in contradictory proceedings. (gov sig)

Proposed law provides the right to present oral argument, in addition to written briefs, at all contradictory hearings in civil cases. Proposed law further provides that oral argument may be waived if parties agree in writing. Proposed law provides that final judgments obtained without allowing oral argument as provided for in proposed law shall be considered a relative nullity. Proposed law provides that motion to annul a judgment as provided in present law must be brought within 30 days after the service, notice, or mailing of judgment as required by present law.
