SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 65

BY SENATOR PEACOCK

COMMENDATIONS. Commends Bossier High School on its Centennial celebration.

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

2 To commend and congratulate the students, faculty, administrators, and alumni of Bossier 3 High School on the occasion of its Centennial celebration and to pay tribute to the 4 accomplishments of its many graduates.

5 WHEREAS, Bossier High School, BHS, has produced an eclectic class of graduates
6 throughout its one hundred years of academic excellence and its alumni have made 7 remarkable contributions to the enrichment of the community, state, and nation; and

8 WHEREAS, on Saturday, May 13, 2017, members of the BHS Bearkat Nation shall 9 gather together to recollect their shared experiences, revisit the past glories of classmates and 10 friends, and rekindle the meaning of the BHS Crest - Truth, Honor, Wisdom; and

11 WHEREAS, BHS holds a wealth of historic significance in the annals of Bossier
12 Parish as its oldest high school; chartered in 1917, the first site, located on Traffic Street, 13 now houses Bossier Elementary School; the first BHS graduating class consisted of five 14 female students; and

15 WHEREAS, the present structure was designed by Shreveport architect, Sam Wiener, 16 and opened in 1940; the facade is an example of the architectural style known as 17 "International Design"; the building has been recognized as a historic preservation property 18 and has been placed on the National Register of Historic Places; and

1           WHEREAS, throughout its lengthy history, BHS has developed traditions that have 2           withstood the test of time; such benchmarks as, the Bossier Bear Facts school newspaper
3           began in 1939; the Les Memoires yearbook was first published in 1945; the school flag of 4           kelly green and white embossed with a Bearkat and the BHS motto was designed in 1962;
5           football began in 1926; the first letter jacket was issued in 1934; and the Bossier Invitational 6           Basketball Tournament began in 1940 and remains the longest running competition of its 7           kind in Northwest Louisiana; and

8           WHEREAS, the Bearcat mascot was selected in 1926, however the spelling was later 9           changed to "Bearkat" to discern Bossier High athletics from the Ruston High Bearcats; and

10          WHEREAS, the music and lyrics to the BHS Alma Mater were written by a student, 11          Robert D. Young, in 1938; Like a wave, a mighty city surging round our feet, guide us, train 12          us, teach us wisdom, alma mater, sweet. Forward, forward, Bossier High School time and 13          tide may fail, but our hearts will ever love thee Alma Mater, hail!; and

14          WHEREAS, in 1925, the school colors of kelly green and white were adopted and 15          the faithful alumni axiom of "always bleed green"; and

16          WHEREAS, the overall objective of this extraordinary academic institution remains 17          the same; "the mission of Bossier High School, in partnership with parents and community,
18          is to foster the development of an environment that will facilitate learning for all students,
19          promote self-esteem and respect for others, and launch learners on a quest for high 20          standards, all of which will lead them to be self-sufficient adults"; and

21          WHEREAS, a comprehensive academic curricula supported by a superior faculty has 22          produced exceptional student achievement with standout performances in student testing as 23          well as band competition, debate, literary rallies, National Honor Society, AFJROTC, and 24          choir, and spirited extracurricular activities have energized the school year with athletics and 25          team sports, homecoming, yearbook, and commencement ceremonies; and

26          WHEREAS, the Bearkat Nation is a composite of a thriving student body and alumni
27          from all over the world; the "Barksdale Kids" is the moniker proudly shared by students 28          from military families who have made BHS a part of their learning experience and their 29          presence adds a welcome diversity and interest to the school's ecology; and

30          WHEREAS, in its first one hundred years, BHS has matriculated thousands of

1 graduates who have moved forward into city, state, national, and worldwide venues and have 2 made positive contributions in every spectrum of society; and

3 WHEREAS, scores of BHS alumni have reached the pinnacle in their professions and 4 include in their number, a presidential candidate, college chancellor, district attorney, NASA
5 space flight educator, Grammy-nominated songwriter, director of brain surgery at Harvard 6 Medical School, president of the National Organization for Women, president of the national 7 Jaycees, an Olympian, and numerous professional athletes; and

8 WHEREAS, the tenets of learning and leadership instilled at BHS challenge students 9 to excel and provide the necessary training for future careers as elected officials, first 10 responders, scientists, educators, businessmen, medical professionals, authors, military 11 service personnel, and energetic citizens at work in the Ark-La-Tex region; and

12 WHEREAS, many former students have "returned to the school" as teachers, 13 coaches, administrators, and school board members; and

14 WHEREAS, the Honorable Charles E. "Buddy" Roemer, governor of Louisiana and 15 United States Congressman, was valedictorian of the Class of 1960 and was inducted into 16 the BHS Alumni Association Hall of Fame for lifetime achievement; and the Honorable 17 Foster L. Campbell served for twenty-six years in the Senate of Louisiana and presently 18 serves on the Public Service Commission; and

19 WHEREAS, the BHS Alumni Association was formed in 2005 to foster connectivity 20 between all former students, to promote continued interest in BHS activities, to honor the 21 community service of its members with the Medal of Merit award, and to provide financial 22 support and scholarships as reward for exceptional academic performance; and

23 WHEREAS, donations of treasured mementos that include band uniforms, letterman
24 sweaters, yearbooks, and other memorabilia are on exhibit at the Bossier Parish Library 25 Historical Center until the end of the year; and

26 WHEREAS, today's student body has forged its own impressive list of successful 27 pathways and graduates are recognized for their commitment to pursue military careers; and

28 WHEREAS, military service has always been an integral part of BHS and that 29 commitment is reflected in AFJROTC participation, veteran honors, and heartfelt memorials 30 that recognize fallen classmates who made the ultimate sacrifice in defense of the United

1 States of America; and

2 WHEREAS, demands of a changing world affect the content of curricula and the 3 utility of classroom space; ten computer labs are readily available on campus; and

4 WHEREAS, David Thrash, the 2011 Louisiana High School Principal of the Year, 5 begins his thirty-fifth year in education and upholds the legacy of BHS with the motto for 6 this centennial year, "Game on, We got this!"; and

7 WHEREAS, all Bearkats alumni are invited to celebrate on Saturday, May 13, 2017,
8 at the Bossier Civic Center with a slate of activities, food and music venues, and an antique
9 car show and BHS alumni are encouraged to actively participate in the year-long celebration
10 of one hundred years of Bossier High School Pride.

11 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 12 commend the students, faculty, administrators, and alumni of Bossier High School on the 13 occasion of its Centennial celebration.

14 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby pay 15 tribute to the accomplishments of the Bearkat Nation of Bossier High School Alumni.

16 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to 17 David W. Thrash, principal of Bossier High School and Carolyn Grimsley, president of the 18 Bossier High School Alumni Association.
