To enact Part V of Chapter 1 of Code Title 24 of Title 9 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to be comprised of R.S. 9:5826 and 5827, relative to prescription; to provide relative to preemptive and prescriptive deadlines; to provide relative to legal deadlines; to provide for applicability; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. Part V of Chapter 1 of Code Title 24 of Title 9 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, comprised of R.S. 9:5826 and 5827, is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§5826. Purpose

In response to the widespread flooding and power outages that occurred in August of 2016, the governor of this state issued Executive Orders JBE 2016-53, 57, and 66, which, among other things, purports to suspend or extend certain prescriptive periods and preemptive periods. The legislature finds that it is necessary to provide for a clear termination of any suspension or extension of prescriptive periods and preemptive periods created by these executive orders in order to preserve a fair and consistent application of the laws of prescription and preemption.

§5827. Suspension and extension of prescription and preemption; 2016 flooding disaster

A. In accordance with Executive Orders JBE 2016-53, 57, and 66, all prescriptive periods, including liberative, acquisitive, and the prescription of nonuse, and all preemptive periods were suspended or extended for a period beginning August 12, 2016, and ending September 30, 2016. To the extent that any prescriptive period or preemptive period would have run on or before September 30, 2017, but for the suspension or extension of the period pursuant to the Executive Orders JBE 2016-53, 57, and 66, the prescriptive or preemptive period will be deemed to have run upon the earlier of: (1) the date calculated pursuant to Louisiana Civil Code Article 3472, or (2) September 30, 2017. The suspension and extension of prescriptive periods and preemptive periods contained in Executive Orders JBE 2016-53, 57, and 66 shall not apply to any prescriptive period or preemptive period accruing on or after October 1, 2017.

B. The provisions of Subsection A of this Section shall not apply to any matter concerning the prescription of nonuse applicable to mineral servitudes, mineral royalty interests, and executive rights as such prescription was not extended or suspended by Executive Orders JBE 2016-53, 57, and 66 and continues to be governed by the Louisiana Mineral Code.
