EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

The bill appears to carve out a tax exemption for entities with particular characteristics, and thus works to reduce franchise tax collections from what they would otherwise be. The Dept. of Revenue does not collect information as to which firms, subject to the franchise tax, file as real estate investment trusts for federal income tax purposes and have 100% of their common shares owned by other tax exempt organizations. Such information is not likely to be obtained even if this exemption is enacted, since at that point affected entities will not be subject to the tax and will not have to file returns for the tax. Committee testimony has indicated that only one entity is affected by the bill.

Revenue losses will first occur in FY18 because the bill is effective on January 1, 2018 and the franchise tax is due at the beginning of the tax period.
