HB 104 Original

2018 Regular Session

Jim Morris

Abstract: Increases the maximum allowable penalty for pipeline safety violations.

Present law authorizes the commissioner of conservation to levy certain penalties for violations of the pipeline safety provisions of law. Requires a notice of the violation and an opportunity for a hearing. Authorizes the imposition of a penalty not to exceed $10,000 per day for each violation with a maximum penalty not to exceed $500,000 for any related series of violations.

Proposed law increases the maximums to $200,000 per day of violation and a maximum of $2 million for any related series of violations.

(Amends R.S. 30:544(A)(1))
