HB 228 Original

2018 Regular Session

Anders

Abstract: Prohibits placement of certain hunting stands within 50 yards from the adjoining property line.

Present law establishes certain prohibitions to hunting deer and bear in the state.

Proposed law adds to the prohibitions in present law a prohibition against assuming a stationary hunting position or placing a permanent or mobile deer or turkey hunting stand or any type of shooting location or position, whether fixed, portable, or mobile, any closer than 50 yards to the boundary of the adjoining property or 100 yards to any residence or inhabited dwelling on adjoining property.
