administrative appeals are exhausted. After the effective date of Children's Code Article 616.1.1, the name of an individual who is determined to be a perpetrator of abuse or neglect shall not be placed on the state central registry until that individual's administrative appeals are exhausted. All decisions rendered by an administrative law judge are final, and the decisions shall exhaust the individual's administrative remedy. However, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department shall provide information involving an investigation from either the repository or the state central registry immediately to the local district attorney's office, or its designee, or to the court, when taking court action is necessary to protect the child from abuse or neglect.

2018 Regular Session

Johnson

Abstract: Provides relative to the confidentiality of records of reports of child abuse and neglect.

Present law requires records of child abuse or neglect to be confidential, but permits the Dept. of Children and Family Services to promulgate rules regarding the release of such information.

Proposed law incorporates changes to present law proposed by Act No. 348 of the 2017 R.S. regarding the confidentiality of the identity of an alleged perpetrator of child abuse or neglect. Proposed law adds that the Dept. of Children and Family Services is required to provide otherwise confidential information to the court or district attorney's office when necessary for the court to protect a child from abuse or neglect.

(Amends Ch.C. Art. 616(B) and Repeals Ch.C. Art. 616(B) as amended and reenacted by Act No. 348 of the 2017 R.S.)
