The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Alden A. Clement Jr.

DIGEST 2018 Regular Session

White

Present law provides relative to early release of certain offenders on the basis of "good time" and parole, including the criteria for earning "good time", eligibility for parole, and exceptions to present law for offenders convicted of crimes of violence and sex offenses under certain circumstances.

Proposed law retains present law.

SB 410 Original

Proposed law provides that on or before August 1, 2018, and no later than August 1st of each year following, the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections is to submit an annual report to the legislature relative to offenders released from custody during the preceding year pursuant to the provisions of present law relative to "good time". Proposed law further provides that this report must include the following information:

- (1) The name and offender number of the released offender.
- (2) The date on which the offender was released.
- (3) The offense for which the offender was incarcerated at the time of his release, including whether the offense was a crime of violence or a sex offense as defined in present law.
- (4) The earliest date on which the offender would have been eligible for release notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3 of Act 280 of the 2017 Regular Session.
- (5) Whether the offender obtained a GED certification or completed a literacy program, an adult basic education program, or a job skills training program before being released from custody.

Proposed law provides that on or before August 1, 2018, and no later than August 1st of each year following, the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections is to submit an annual report to the legislature relative to offenders released from custody during the preceding year on parole pursuant to the provisions of present law. Proposed law further provides that this report must include the following information:

- (1) The name and offender number of the paroled offender.
- (2) The date on which the offender was released from custody on parole.
- (3) The offense for which the offender was incarcerated at the time of his release, including whether the offense was a crime of violence or a sex offense as defined in present law.

- (4) The earliest date on which the offender would have been eligible for parole notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3 of Act 280 of the 2017 Regular Session.
- (5) Whether the offender obtained a GED certification or completed a literacy program, an adult basic education program, or a job skills training program before being paroled.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Adds R.S. 15:571.3(F) and 574.4(I))