DIGEST

SB 36 Engrossed 2018 Regular Session John Smith

Present law provides continuing education requirements for renewal of an insurance producer's La. license. Exempts licensees who are at least 65 years old under certain circumstances.

Proposed law retains present law and exempts any nonresident licensee who meets the continuing education requirements for his home state and whose home state gives continuing education credit to resident licensees of this state on a reciprocal basis.

Effective August 1, 2018.
