Present law prohibits an insurer or insurance producer from paying money or commission or brokerage, or giving or allowing any valuable consideration or compensation to any person or business entity not duly licensed as an insurance producer, nor to an insurer not licensed to do business in this state, for or because of service rendered or performed in this state in selling, soliciting, negotiating, or effecting a contract of insurance on any property or risks, or insurable interests, or business activities located within or transacted within this state.

Proposed law retains present law.

The prohibition of present law does not apply to any contract of reinsurance or the La. Workers' Compensation Corporation.

Proposed law retains present law.

The prohibition of present law does not apply to the distribution of profits to the owners of an insurance agency business entity licensed as a producer if the business entity has complied with the provisions of present law and the owners are not persons to whom either of the following applies:
